Zed

came to stay

with us

in the summer.

The

weather

was very hot.

We

decided to have a picnic.

Mum

helped

us

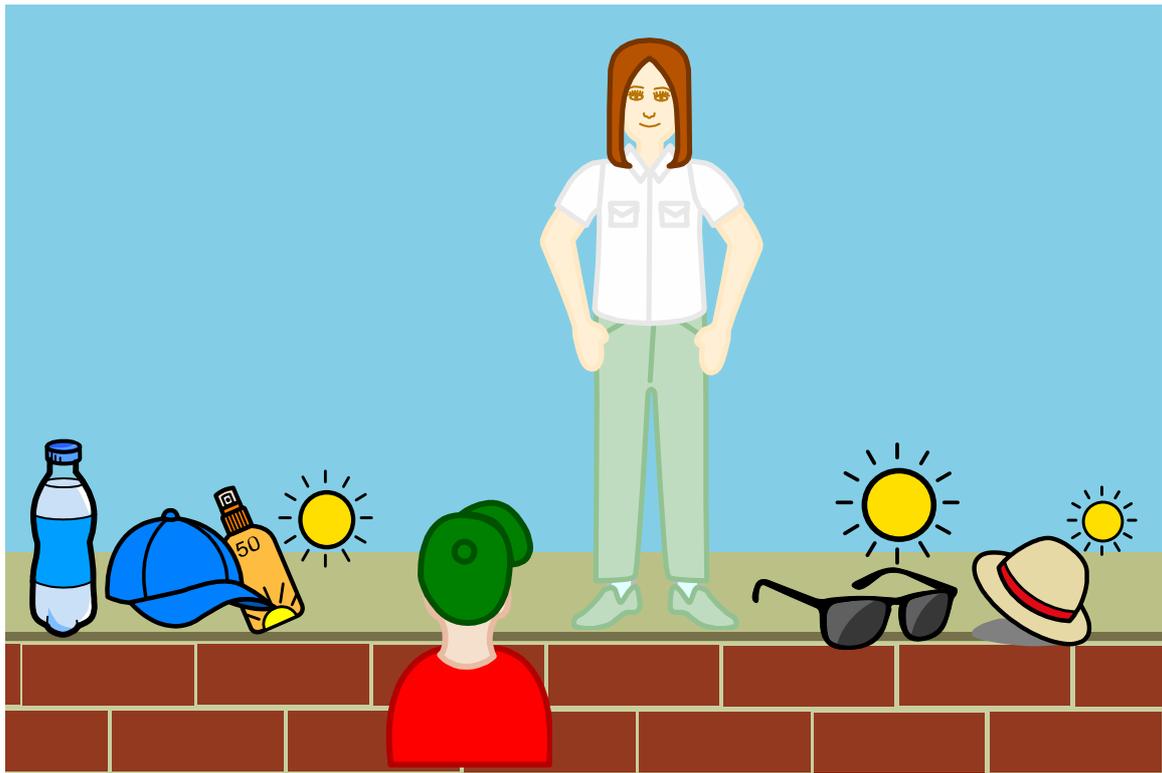

fill

the

picnic basket.

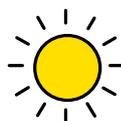

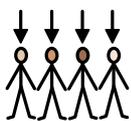

The sun was shining very brightly.

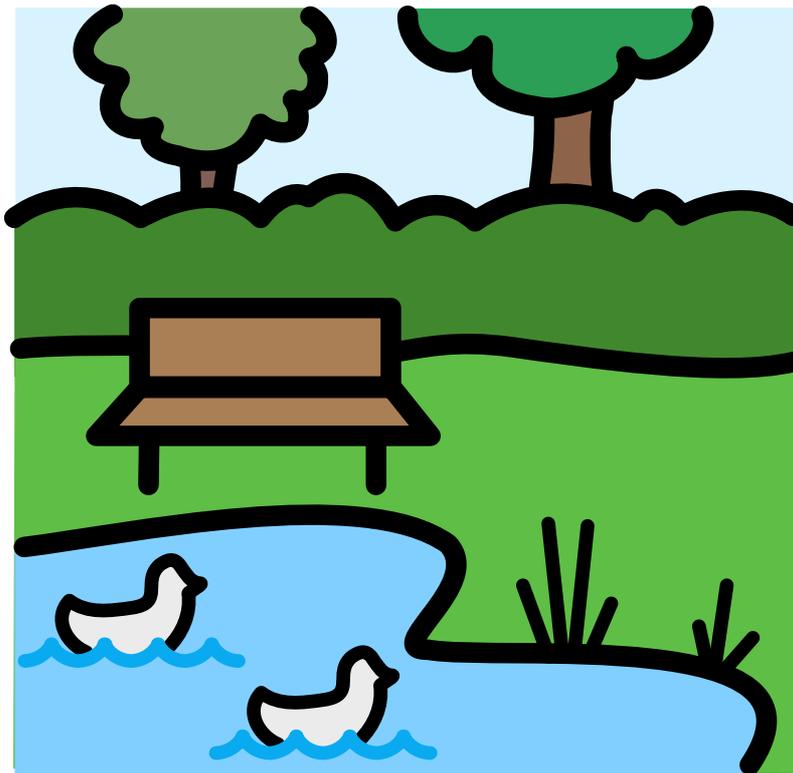

Mum helped us put on some sunscreen.

We wore our sunglasses and sun hats.

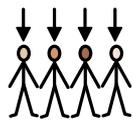

Everyone should be careful in the sun.

Dad

took

us all

to the park.

He

parked the car

beside

a

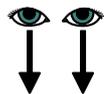

pool.

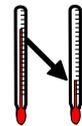

The

pool

looked

nice and

cool.

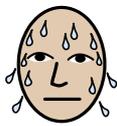

We

were very hot.

We

put on

our swimming trunks.

Mum

went to the

pool

with us.

We

splashed

in

the water.

It

was

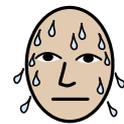

nice

because we

were so

hot.

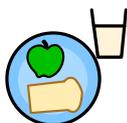

Dad

called

us to say

lunch

was ready.

The

picnic

looked

delicious.

We

sat

in our

trunks

to

eat

our picnic.

The

sun

dried

wet

bodies.

Zed

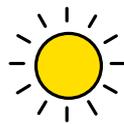

liked

sitting

in the sun.

He

was

nice

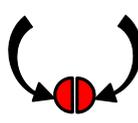

and

warm.

A gentle breeze

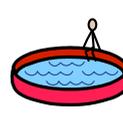

made

ripples

in the pool.

Suddenly

the skies turned grey.

 We  quickly  dressed  and  went  to the car.

 Dad  said  a storm  was coming.

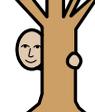

Zed looked scared.

 "Don't  worry,"  said  dad,  it  will  soon  pass.

 A clap of thunder roared all  around  us.

 Zed  hid behind the  seat.

A  flash of lightning spread  across the  sky.

The  thunder and  lightning  scared Zed.

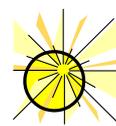

The storm passed quickly.

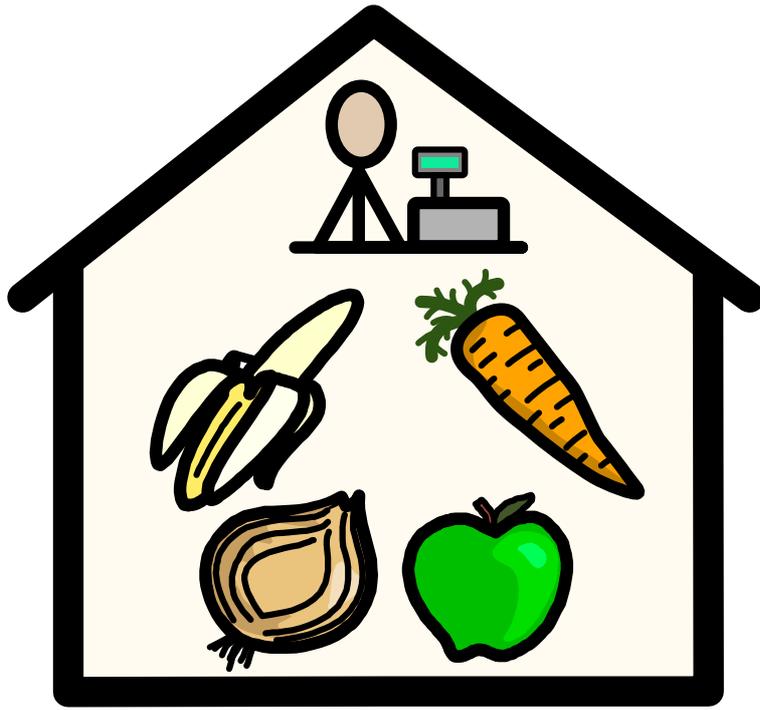

The clouds disappeared and the sun shone.

Zed was happy again.

He liked it better when the sun shone.

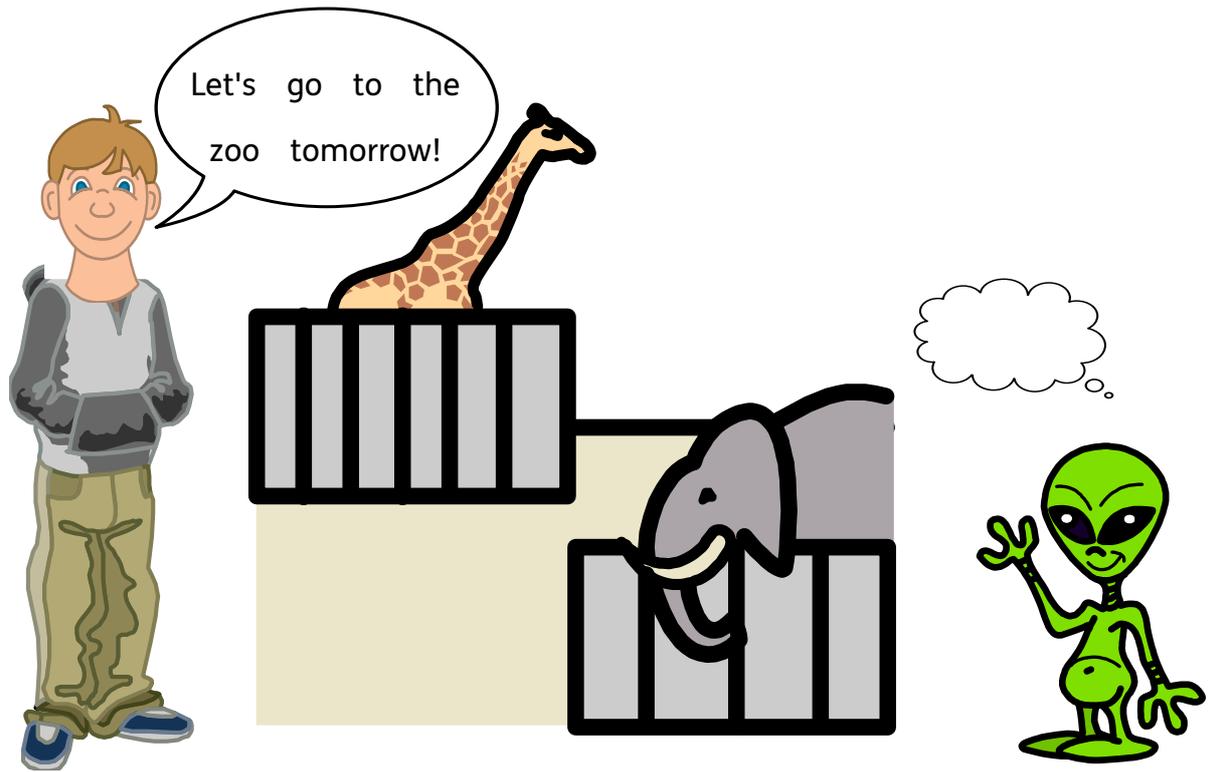

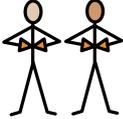

On the  way  home we  stopped at the  farm shop.

 Mum  bought lots of  fresh vegetables for  dinner.

 She bought us an  ice cream too.

 Zed  likes  ice cream.

 We both enjoyed our day out with mum and dad.

 Zed wanted to do it again.

 We planned our next trip.

 We decided we would like to go to the zoo.
