Zed came to stay with us in the summer.

The weather was very hot.

We decided to have a picnic.

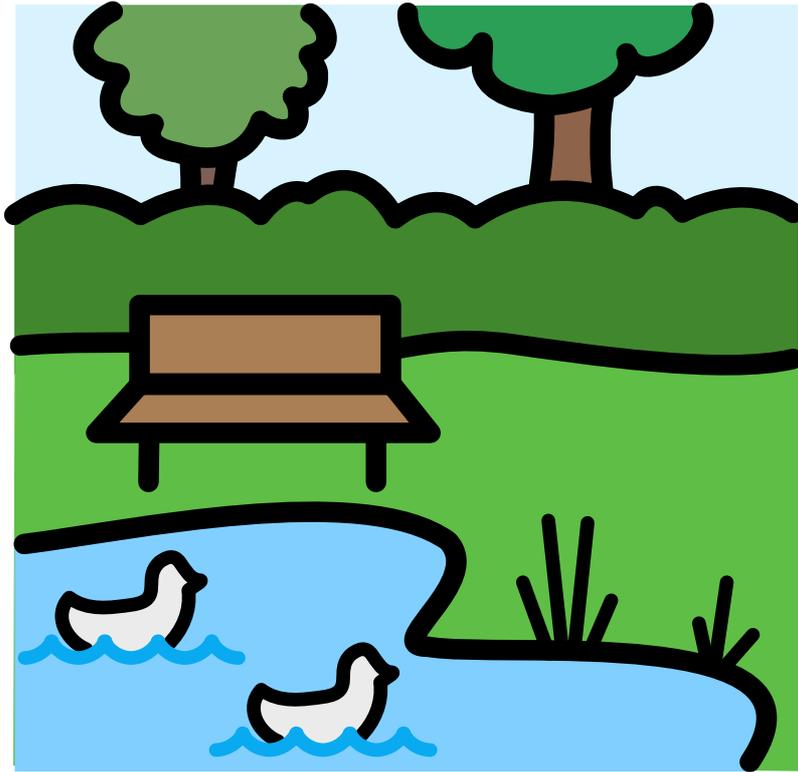

The sun was shining very brightly.

Mum helped us put on some sunscreen.

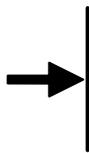

We wore our sunglasses and sun hats.

Dad

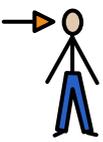

took us all

to the park.

He

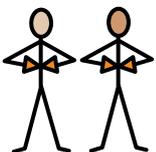

parked the car

beside a pool.

We

were very hot.

We put on our swimming trunks.

Mum went to the pool with us.

It was nice because we were so hot.

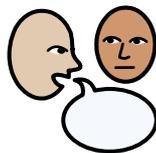

Dad

called

us to say

lunch

was ready.

We

sat

in our trunks

to eat

our picnic.

The sun

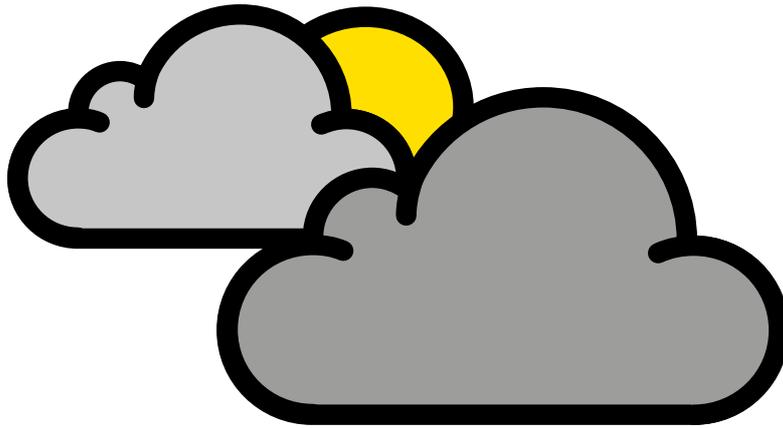

dried

our wet

bodies.

Zed

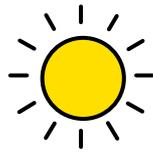

liked

sitting

in the sun.

A gentle breeze

made

ripples in the pool.

Suddenly the skies turned grey.

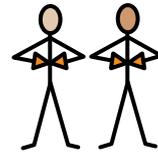

We quickly dressed and went to the car.

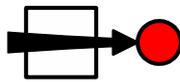

Dad said a storm was coming.

Zed looked scared.

A clap of thunder roared all around us.

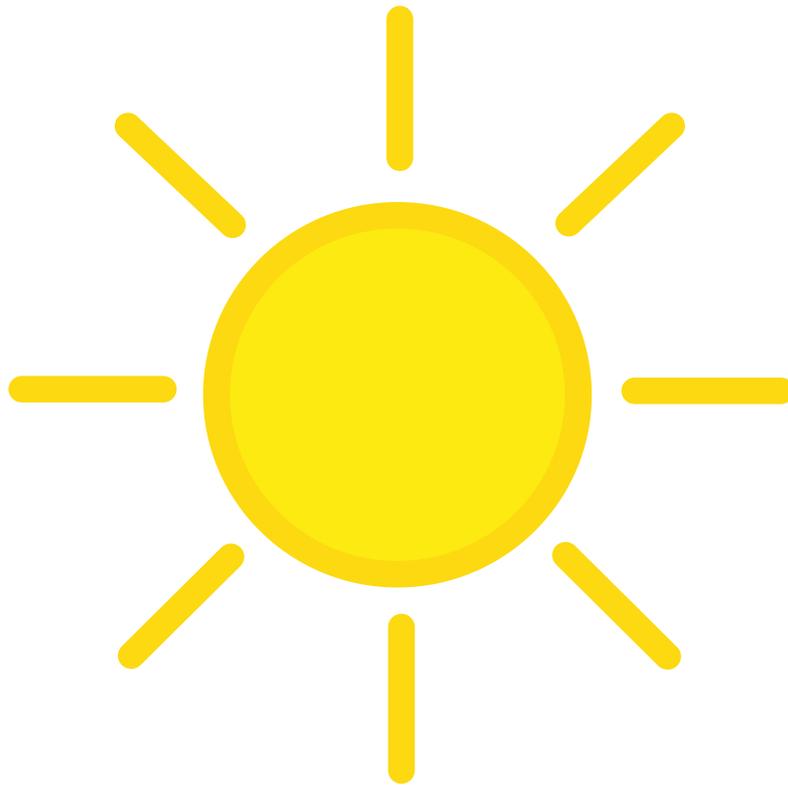

A flash of lightning spread across the sky.

The thunder and lightning scared Zed.

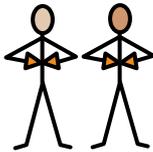

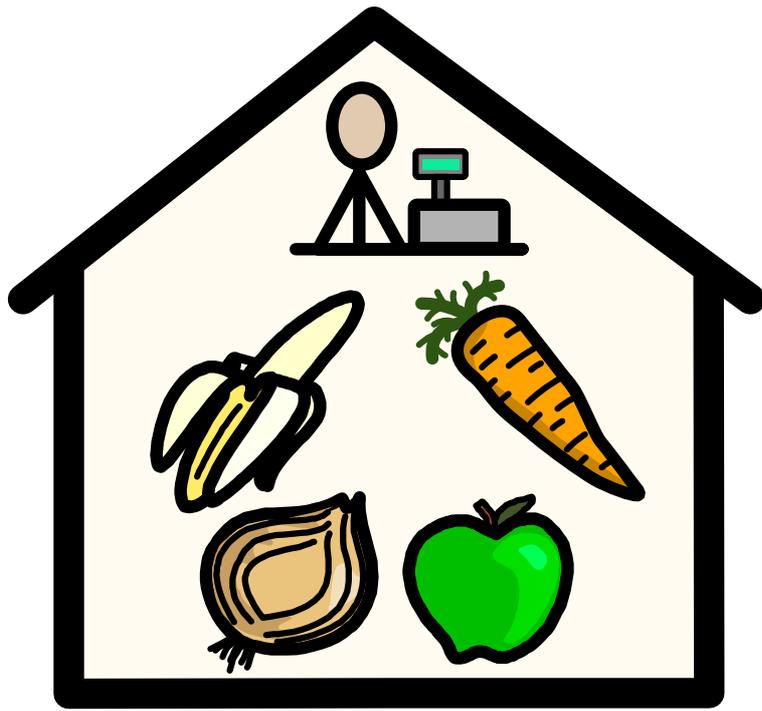

The storm passed quickly.

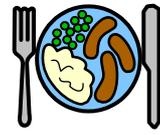

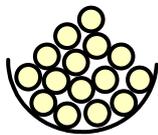

The clouds disappeared and the sun shone.

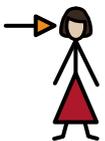

Zed was happy again.

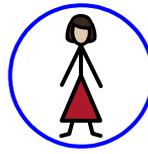

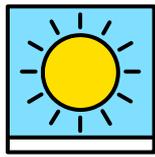

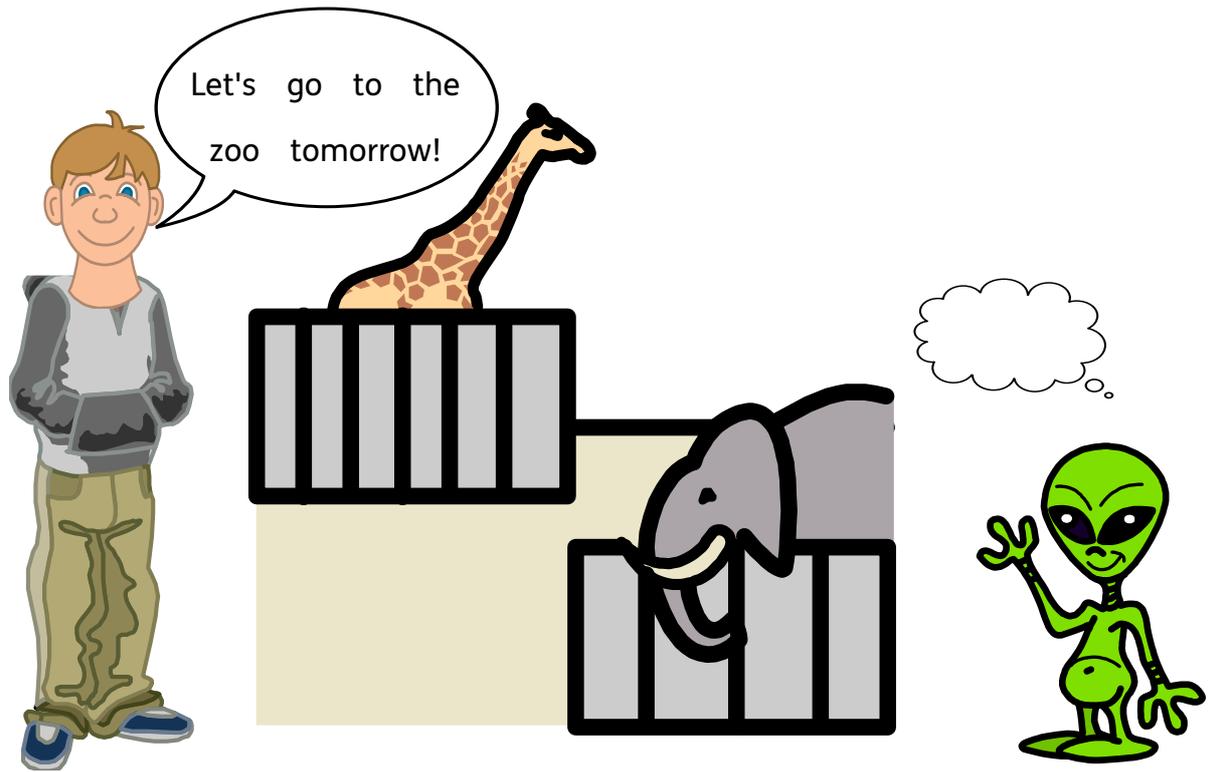

On the way home we stopped at the farm shop.

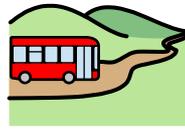

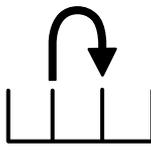

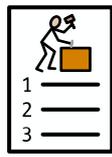

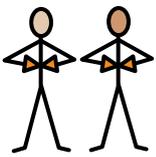

Mum bought lots of fresh vegetables for dinner.

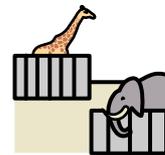

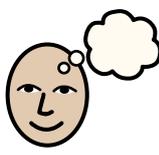

She bought us an ice cream too.

We enjoyed our day out with mum and dad.

We planned our next trip.

We decided we would like to go to the zoo.
